In Re: Expanded Interconnection Phase II and Local
Transport Restructure: Docket No. 921974-TP

Dear Ms. Canzano:

Sprint Communications Company Limited Partnership ("Sprint") hereby responds to Chairman Deason's directives given during the Prehearing Conference on Wednesday, August 10, 1994, in the above-referenced proceeding. Specifically, Sprint (1) confirms its agreement to stipulate issues identified below; (2) identifies issues to be addressed in Witness Rock's rebuttal testimony; and, (3) submits a corrected position on issue 12.

- (1) Sprint confirms its agreement to stipulate to issues 1, 2, 9, 10, 11, and 13, as modified.
- (2) Sprint's witness Fred I. Rock will address issue number 18 in his rebuttal testimony specifically in response to GTE's witness Kirk Lee.
- (3) Sprint's position on issue 12 should read as follows:

No. LECs Interconnectors should not be required to offer interconnection. LECs and interconnectors should be allowed to negotiate individual arrangements so long as such arrangements are public and made available to all other interconnectors at the same location.

Please feel free to contact me should you have any questions or concerns regarding the above.

Sincerely,
Chanthina R. Bryant
