DOCKET NO. 940001-EI
FILED: September 2, 1994

TAMPA ELECTRIC COMPANY'S MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION
OF A PORTION OF ORDER NO. PSC-94-1017-CFO-EI

Tampa Electric Company ("Tampa Electric" or "the company"), pursuant to Rule 25-22.038(2), moves the Commission through its Prehearing Officer to reconsider one aspect of Order No. PSC-94-1017-CFO-EI, issued in the above docket on August 23, 1994, and as grounds therefor, says:

1. The referenced order (hereinafter referred to as Order No. 94-1017) grants in part and denies in part confidential classification of certain portions of the documents provided to the Commission's Staff in the Staff's performance of an audit of fuel expense ending March 31, 1993.

2. Tampa Electric can accept the rationale expressed for the denial of confidential classification with the exception of one area discussed at the bottom of page 12 and the top of page 13 of Order No. 94-1017. The last paragraph on page 12 denies confidential treatment of certain tonnages reflected in Workpaper 58-3, page 1. Similarly, the paragraph on the top of page 13 of the order denies certain requested tonnages on Workpaper 58-3, page 2 of the Staff's workpapers.

3. In both places in the order it is stated that, without the associated cost data, calculations cannot be made of unit price. This is not why Tampa Electric sought to protect these tonnage levels. Instead, the company sought and continues to seek to protect contract minimum and maximum tonnage levels to prevent them from being used by suppliers to determine the flexibility available to the utility in supply choices. The tonnages shown in the two workpapers are actually minimum/maximum parameters. If these contract minimum and maximum tonnage levels are made public, other suppliers will know whether deliveries are being made at the maximum levels. Thus, a spot supplier knowing that maximum tonnage levels are being taken could bid a price higher than the contract price knowing that the utility cannot automatically turn to the contract as a source.

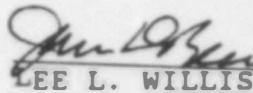

4. Similarly, if contracts are delivering at the minimum level, a supplier may not price as aggressively knowing that there is no way to obtain a part of the business held by the contract.

5. Tampa Electric offers the above clarifications in support of the company's request for reconsideration of only those two denials of confidential classification identified above and appearing at the bottom of page 12 and the top of page 13 of Order No. 94-1017.

WHEREFORE, Tampa Electric respectfully urges that the Prehearing Officer reconsider the denial of confidential classification of the annual tonnage amounts set forth on Workpaper 58-3, page 1 and 2.

DATED this 2nd day of September, 1994.

Respectfully submitted,

LEE L. WILLIS
