Re: A.R.C. Networks, Inc.
Docket No. 960792-TX

Dear Mr. Williams and Ms. Jones:

Transmitted herewith on behalf of A.R.C. Networks, Inc. ("ARC") are an original and six copies of an additional response to your facsimile, dated August 5, 1996. Please recall that on August 20, 1996, we provided you with extensive financial documentation of ARC and its parent company, which you requested for ARC's pending Application for a Certification of Public Convenience and Necessity to provide alternative local exchange telecommunications service. See Docket No. 960792-TX.

ACK _____ Among the documents that we sent to you on August 20 was a letter from Lewis S.
AFA _____ Schiller, Chairman of Consolidated Technology Group, Ltd. ("Consolidated"), ARC's parent
APP _____ company. In his letter, Mr. Schiller stated that Consolidated -- a company that had annual CAF _____ revenue in excess of $110 million for 1995 as of March 31, 1996, and cash and cash equivalents
CMU _____ in excess of $1.5 million -- "fully supports" ARC. It is our opinion, Mr. Schiller's letter, along
CTR _____ with Consolidated's Form 10-K and Form 10-Q, as filed with the SEC, as well as ARC's EAG _____ projected profit and loss statements which we provided to you on August 20, clearly _____ demonstrates that:

LEG _____ (1) ARC has sufficient financial capability to provide the requested service in the LIV _____ geographic area proposed to be served; and

REF _____ (2) ARC has sufficient financial capability to maintain the requested service.
