MEMORANDUM

January 2, 1996

TO: DIVISION OF APPEALS (HELTON)

FROM: DIVISION OF RESEARCH AND REGULATORY REVIEW (HEWITT) CBH PD EMD

SUBJECT: ECONOMIC IMPACT STATEMENT FOR PROPOSED REVISIONS TO RULE 25-17.003, FAC, ENERGY AUDITS; AND REPEAL OF RULES 25-17.051 THROUGH 25-17.065, FAC

Currently, the Energy Audit Rules, 25-17.003, and 25-17.051 through 25-17.065, FAC, contain the minimum requirements for performance of energy audits by electric utilities. The elements of energy conservation are listed, as are references to repealed federal rules.

The proposed rule language revisions and repeals would streamline, clarify, and update the energy audit requirements. The statutes require an agency to prepare an economic impact statement if a rule revision results in any "substantial increase in costs" or "significant adverse effects" to the parties directly affected, including state and local governmental entities. Since the revisions should not increase Commission staff paperwork and no significant additional costs or adverse impacts have been identified, there is no need for preparation of an EIS for the proposed rule changes.

Please keep my name on the CASR.
