Re: INET- Interactive Network System/ LLC
Order No. PSC-95-1225- FOF-TI

Dear Mr. Moses:

Please let this letter serve as the request of INET Interactive Network System/ LLC (INET LLC or Company) to amend it's Certificate of Public Convenience and Necessity (CPCN) to reflect a change in INET LLC's corporate structure from a Limited Liability Corporation to a regular C-corporation to be known as Interactive Network System, Inc.

On October 3, 1995, INET LLC was issued a CPCN in Docket No. 950816-TI to provide resold telecommunications services within the State of Florida. Due to the limited geographic scope of INET's intended operations, the Company chose a Limited Liability Corporation (LLC) as the corporate structure under which to operate.

Since it's certification in Florida, INET's business has grown substantially more than originally anticipated and as a result, the Company has chosen to become certified in numerous other states. Because of the differences in the laws of the various states concerning LLC's the Company has decided that it is more economical to become a regular Corporation as opposed to maintaining the Company as an LLC

Therefore, in furtherance of this decision, the Company has incorporated a new California corporation known as INET- Interactive Network Systems, Inc. which is the entity that is obtaining Commission Certificates in the various other states. This new Corporation has the same officers, directors, and shareholders as INET LLC with the only difference being a change in the corporate designation from LLC to "Inc.". A copy of the new qualification documents which were recently filed with the State of Florida has been attached hereto. This letter will be supplemented when the approved document has been returned from the Secretary of state.

Therefore, INET LLC requests that the Florida Public Service Commission acknowledge the change in the corporate structure of INET from "LLC" to "Inc." and that the CPCN originally issued by the Florida Commission be amended to identify the new corporate structure.

Should you have any questions, do not hesitate to call.

Sincerely,
