Re: Merger of Zenex Long Distance, Inc., a long distance reseller, with a subsidiary of Advanced Communications Group, Inc.

Dear Commission:

The purpose of this letter is to notify the Department of the contemplated merger of Zenex Long Distance, Inc., a telecommunications reseller currently providing service in Florida, with a subsidiary of Advanced Communications Group, Inc. Zenex currently possesses a certificate to provide interexchange telecommunications service in the State of Florida (Docket No. 96-0536-TI/Certificate No. 4691).

The proposed transaction will consist of a reverse triangular merger in which a wholly-owned subsidiary of Advanced Communications Group, Inc., a Delaware Corporation, will be merged with and into Zenex. At the time of the merger, the separate existence of the special purpose subsidiary will cease and Zenex will be the surviving entity and continue in existence under the laws of the State of Oklahoma. The merger is currently anticipated to take effect on or about August 8, 1997. An operations headquarters will be established in Zenex's Oklahoma City office and questions regarding customer service and operations should be directed to:
