IN AND FOR HILLSBOROUGH COUNTY, FLORIDA

DIVISION OF ADMINISTRATIVE HEARINGS

In re: The APPEAL of
CHESTER OSHEYACK, Private Citizen
Appellant

v.

AFFIDAVIT OF INSOLVANCY

DIVISION OF ADMINISTRATIVE HEARINGS
State of Florida
Appellee

STATE OF FLORIDA
COUNTY OF HILLSBOROUGH

BEFORE ME personally appeared, CHESTER OSHEYACK, who after being sworn, states:

I, the Appellant, am insolvent and unable to pay charges, costs or fees otherwise payable by law to any clerk in this appellate action because:

I am 74 plus years of age; my wife is 69 years of age; our principal income is from Social Security, and our sole source of healthcare is only available through Medicare. During recent years we have begun to suffer the ravages of aging and all of our disposable income is committed to payment for health maintenance and associated requirements for services rendered by Doctors, Dentists, Medical Laboratories, Pharmacies and Hospitals.

There are no wages, no property of marketable value, no tax refunds, no negotiable assets, no savings, and little hope of any change in status, barring, of course, a winning lottery ticket.

My monthly obligations, other than disposable income as noted above, just about equals my month income.

I can provide the numbers if required, but they will do no more than bear out the information that I have affirmed herein.

AFFIANT STATES NOTHING FURTHER
