In re: Discovery for Study on Fair & Reasonable Rates and on Relationships Among Costs and Charges Associated with Certain Telecommunications Services Provided by LECs, as Required by Chapter 98-277.

Docket No.: 980733-TL

Filed: July 31, 1998

BELLSOUTH TELECOMMUNICATIONS, INC.'S RESPONSES AND OBJECTIONS TO THE CITIZENS' FIRST SET OF REQUESTS FOR PRODUCTION OF DOCUMENTS AND MOTION FOR A TEMPORARY PROTECTIVE ORDER

COMES NOW, BellSouth Telecommunications, Inc. ("BellSouth"), and files pursuant to Rule 25-22.034, Florida Administrative Code, and Rule 1.350, Florida Rules of Civil Procedure, its Responses and Objections to the Attorney General and Citizens' ("Citizens") First Set of Requests for Production of Documents dated June 19, 1998, and pursuant to Rule 25-22.006(5)(c), Florida Administrative Code, its Motion for Temporary Protective Order.

MOTION FOR TEMPORARY PROTECTIVE ORDER

The documents that will be delivered to or made available for review by Public Counsel contain proprietary, confidential business information that should not be publicly disclosed. Thus, pursuant to Rule 25-22.006(5)(c), Florida Administrative Code, BellSouth moves the Prehearing Officer to issue a Temporary Protective Order exempting these documents from § 119.07(1), Florida Statutes. These documents contain proprietary confidential business information. Such information is specifically included as proprietary confidential business information pursuant to § 364.183(3), Florida Statutes. If Public Counsel subsequently notifies BellSouth that any of the proprietary documents are to be used in a proceeding before the Commission, BellSouth will, in accordance with Rule 25-22.006, Florida Administrative Code, file a detailed Motion for Protective Order specifically addressing each of the documents identified.

GENERAL RESPONSES

1. BellSouth objects to Public Counsel's proposed "Instruction" relating to details of privileged documents. To the extent a document responsive to any of the requests is subject to an applicable privilege, some of the information requested by Public Counsel would be similarly privileged and therefore not subject to discovery. Notwithstanding this objection, BellSouth agrees to identify any documents withheld on the basis of privilege.

2. With regard to Public Counsel's definition of "document" or "documents", BellSouth has made a diligent, good faith attempt to locate documents responsive to the scope of Public Counsel's individual requests for documents.

3. BellSouth objects to Public Counsel's definition of "you" and "your." It appears that Public Counsel, through its definition of these words, is attempting to obtain discovery of information in the possession, custody, or control of entities that are not parties to this docket. Requests for Production may only be directed to parties, and any attempt by Public Counsel to obtain discovery from non-parties should be prohibited. See Rule 1.340, Florida Rules of Civil Procedure; Broward v. Kerr, 454 So. 2d 1068 (4th D.C.A. 1984).

4. BellSouth does not believe it was Public Counsel's intent to require BellSouth to produce again the same documents previously produced in other dockets, but to the extent it does, BellSouth objects on the basis that such a request would be unduly burdensome, oppressive, and unnecessary, and for these reasons is prohibited.

5. BellSouth objects to the specific time and place designated by Public Counsel for the production of documents for the reasons that the designation is not reasonable, but has no objection to producing the documents that are responsive and to which no other objection is made, at a mutually agreed upon time and place.

6. The following Specific Responses are given subject to the above-stated General Responses and Objections.

SPECIFIC RESPONSES

1. Please provide each document in your possession, custody or control calculating, estimating, evaluating, or commenting on the price elasticity of demand for residential basic local telephone service.

Response: BellSouth has no documents responsive to this request.

2. Please provide each document in your possession, custody or control estimating, evaluating, or commenting on the price elasticity of demand for residential basic local telephone service at different customer income levels.

Response: BellSouth has no documents responsive to this request.

3. Please provide each document in your possession, custody or control evaluating telephone subscribership penetration in your service area in Florida.

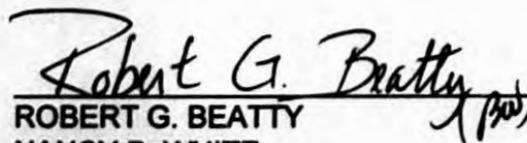

Response: BellSouth will provide the documents responsive to this request.

4. Please provide all surveys or other documents in your possession, custody or control evaluating or discussing the amount or frequency of toll service used by your residential customers.

Response: BellSouth will provide the documents responsive to this request subject to the Motion for Temporary Protective Order set forth above.

Respectfully submitted this 31st day of July, 1998.
