It has come to my attention that certain pages contained in Staff witness Kathy L. Welch's exhibits K LW-1 and K LW-2 were poor copies and did not reflect the entire page of the exhibit in some circumstances. Therefore, I have enclosed Revised K LW-1 and K LW-2 to be filed today. Please note that the substance of the exhibits has not been changed. The exhibits have simply been re-copied to ensure that they are legible.

AUTHORITY:

Florida Statutes 120.58(1), (3)

(1) (b) An agency or its duly empowered presiding officer or a hearing officer has the power to swear witnesses and take their testimony under oath, to issue subpoenas upon the written request of any party or upon its own motion, and to effect discovery on the written request of any party by any means available to the courts and in the manner provided in the Florida Rules of Civil Procedure, including the imposition of sanctions, except contempt. . . .

(3) A party may seek enforcement of a subpoena, order directing discovery, or order imposing sanctions issued under the authority of this act by filing a petition for enforcement in the circuit court of the judicial circuit in which the person failing to comply with the subpoena or order resides. A failure to comply with an order of the court shall result in a finding of contempt of court. However, no person shall be in contempt while a subpoena is being challenged under subsection (2). The court may award to the prevailing party all or part of the costs and attorney's fees incurred in obtaining the court order whenever the court determines that such an award should be granted under the Florida Rules of Civil Procedure.

Rule 25-22.045, Florida Administrative Code

(1) When the proceeding is before the Commission or member thereof, subpoenas may be issued by the presiding officer or the Division of Records and Reporting on subpoena forms supplied by the Commission. When the proceeding is before a hearing officer of the Division of Administrative Hearings, subpoenas may be issued by the Hearing Officer.

(2) A party shall apply in writing for the issuance of subpoenas requiring the attendance of witnesses or production of records, files, and memoranda from any place in the state, at any designated place of hearing before the presiding officer, for the purpose of taking the testimony of such witness or inspection of documents. An application for the subpoena shall state the name and address of the witness for whom the subpoena is to be issued, and the time and place for the witness to appear.

(3) Any party or person against whom a subpoena is directed may file a motion to quash or limit the subpoena with the agency having jurisdiction of the dispute. The motion shall set forth the ground relied upon.

(4) A subpoena may be served by any person authorized by law to serve process or by any person who is not a party and who is of majority age. Service shall be made by delivering a copy thereof to the person named in the subpoena. Proof of service shall be made by affidavit of the person making service if service is not made by an officer authorized by law to do so.

(5) Service of a subpoena may also be effected by certified mail, in which case the return receipt must be signed by the person named in the subpoena.
