Re: Commission Conference Agenda 11/03/98
Docket No. 981125-TC - H. Cartman

Dear Ms. Johnson:

We have received the above notice of violation of Rule 25-4.0161 regarding Cartman Telecom. Herbert Cartman was the owner and manager of this small company, which presently consists of six telephones. Mr. Cartman became ill in mid December and passed away January 28, 1998. I, Sandra N. Cartman, am his widow and am continuing to run the company and am in the process of learning all the rules and regulations.

I was unaware of this Regulatory Assessment fee and that it was not paid for 1997. By way of this letter I am requesting that I be deferred from your November 3, 1998 docket and will make every effort to take whatever steps to rectify this oversight and comply with the necessary regulations.

Enclosed is my check for $67.50 which includes the minimum payment I owe along with the $12.50 penalty and $5.00 interest. I would also like the necessary information to transfer the business to my name. Your cooperation in this matter will be very much appreciated.

Sincerely,

Sandra N. Cartman
