Re: Maxima Communications Corporation
Docket# 981682-TI

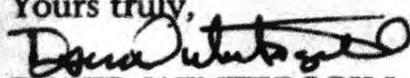

Dear Ms. Bayo;

In response to your prior letter I personally know of no business that Maxima has ever conducted in the State of Florida. Maxima has never had any residential or commercial customers residing in the State of Florida nor has it ever solicited residential or commercial customers within Florida. Maxima has never generated any revenues based upon telecommunications services sold to residential or commercial customers residing with the state.

Although Maxima may have filed an Application for Certificate of Authority with the Office of the Secretary of State for the State of Florida and/or with the Public Service Commission that it had been conducting business in Florida; that information is incorrect and/or was completely in error.

Please forward any documentation necessary to cancel our certificate to operate in Florida. Of course, please contact the undersigned for any questions.
