RE: DOCKET NO. 990373-TP - Establishment of a statewide emergency area code relief plan.

Issue 1: Should the Commission declare an area code emergency in the State of Florida?

Recommendation: Yes. Staff recommends that the Commission declare an area code emergency in the State of Florida.

MODIFIED

Instead, on the Commission's own motion, this docket will be set for hearing on the issue of sequential number utilization. Further, staff was directed to file a request for waiver with the FCC concurrent with industry meetings, to allow for actions recommended by staff.

Issue 2: Should the Commission issue an immediate final order to implement an emergency relief plan to preserve the remaining NXXs in the 305 area code for Monroe County (the Keys area)?

Recommendation: Yes. Staff recommends that the Commission issue an immediate final order pursuant to Section 120.569 (2) (1), Florida Statutes, to implement an emergency relief plan to preserve the remaining NXXs in the 305 area code for Monroe County (the Keys area) by (1) suspending the distribution of NXXs in the 305 Keys area until January 1, 2000, (2) directing NANPA to only distribute the remaining 11 NXXs at a rate of 1 NXX per year on a lottery basis to extend the area code life until the year 2011, and (3) ordering that all NXX code holders issue telephone numbers consecutively, beginning with the lowest assignable telephone number. Staff will bring a recommendation to the Commission with proposed criteria for the lottery at a later date.

See Issue 1

Issue 3: Should the Commission issue an immediate final order to preserve the distribution of all NXXs in the State of Florida, including number conservation measures?

Recommendation: Yes. Staff recommends that the Commission issue an immediate final order pursuant to Section 120.569 (2) (1), Florida Statutes, to preserve the distribution of all NXXs in the State of Florida. The Commission should direct the code administrator to seek Commission approval prior to issuing any NXX codes, and the Commission should order NXX code holders to issue telephone numbers consecutively beginning with the lowest assignable telephone number. Staff will address number conservation measures in a separate docket.

See Issue 1

Issue 4: Should this docket be closed?

Recommendation: Yes, if the Commission approves staff recommendation in Issues 1-3, this docket should be closed.
