981011-TL, 981012-TL and 981250-TL

Dear Mrs. Bayo:

Enclosed is an Amended Attachment A to BellSouth's Request for Confidential Classification filed with the Commission on Friday, April 9, 1999. BellSouth is amending its Attachment A due to clerical errors discovered after the filing. The Amended Attachment A should replace the Attachment A filed on April 9, 1999.

I apologize for any inconvenience this may have caused the Commission or the parties. A copy of the Amendment is also being served on the parties today.

Sincerely,

J. Phillip Carver

COLLOCATION INVESTIGATIONS DOCKETS NOS. 980946-TL; 980947-TL; 980949-TL; 981011-TL; And 981012-TL; 981052-TL

Explanation of Proprietary Information

1. This information constitutes trade secrets that relate to the competitive business of BellSouth. The release of this information would potentially damage BellSouth in that it would allow BellSouth's competitors to have free access to intellectual property which was developed at significant expense to BellSouth. Competitors would then have an advantage in bidding for such business since they would have few, if any, expenses such as market research and market development to recover, and would bid below BellSouth's cost level. Accordingly, this information is entitled to confidential classification pursuant to Florida Statutes Section 364.183(3)(a) and (e).
2. The subject information includes BellSouth's business plans, forecasts and other confidential business information. If this information were disclosed publicly, it would damage the competitive interests of BellSouth. Accordingly, this information is entitled to confidential classification pursuant to Florida Statutes Section 364.183(3)(e).
3. This information includes the floor plans of BellSouth central offices. These plans are proprietary and confidential business information. These offices have limited access and are the central focal point of telecommunications in their geographic location. Public disclosure of this information would impair BellSouth's ability to keep these office and the communications network secure. This information is valuable, it is used by BellSouth in conducting its business and BellSouth strives to keep it secret. Therefore, such information should be classified as proprietary, confidential business information pursuant to Section 363.183(3)(a) and (c), Florida Statutes.
4. This information reflects BellSouth's market strategy relating to its competitive marketing position. Specifically this information discusses, describes and evaluates BellSouth's potential strategic responses to various competitive scenarios; sets forth and evaluates underlying components of specific competitive proposals along with supporting rationale such as results of market research and analysis; names of individuals assigned to certain projects; key details relating to the substance of such projects as well as developmental time frame information and implementation information; and discusses/evaluates recommendations on these potential competitive response. BellSouth's competitors could use this information to develop their own market strategy with which to thwart BellSouth's effort in the market. Thus, the disclosure of this information to BellSouth's competitors would impair BellSouth's ability to compete. In addition, this information is valuable as it is used by BellSouth in conducting its business and BellSouth strives to keep it secret. Therefore, this information is a trade secret which should be classified as proprietary, confidential business information pursuant to Section 364.183(3)(a) and (e).
5. This information is employee personnel information unrelated to compensation, duties, qualifications or responsibilities. This information is a name and/or control number used to identify an employee in lieu of a social security number. This information is expressly identified in Section 364.183(3)(f), Florida Statutes, as proprietary confidential business information.
6. This information contains vendor specific information, and/or, vendor specific prices negotiated by BellSouth. Public disclosure of this information would impair BellSouth's ability to contract for goods and services on favorable terms. This information is valuable, it is used by BellSouth in conducting its business and BellSouth strives to keep it secret. Therefore, such information is a trade secret which should be classified as proprietary, confidential business information pursuant to Section 364.183(3)(d), Florida Statutes.
