To whom it may concern:

I am in receipt of the notice which was sent to me regarding the cancellation of my pay telephine certificate. I appreciate the cancellation since I have never owned a pay telephone and never intend to.

I do have one problem. Your notice requested me to send back to you my certificate. Many months ago I cleaned my file cabinet out and threw the certificate away since it was of no use or interest to me.

The recent notice also requested that I remit a Regulatory Assessment Fee of $50.00. I sent that payment in several months ago when I requested the cancellation.

I hope this does not create a problem but I just had no interest in pay telephones.

Please let me know if there's something further I need to do. If I do not hear back from your office, I will assume the matter is closed.

Thank you so much.

Sincerely,

Carol Maust
