RE: Docket No. 990649-TP - Investigation into pricing of unbundled network elements.

VIA FACSIMILE

On Friday, October 1, 1999, staff conducted an informal telephone conference to address several matters pertinent to this docket. One of the issues discussed was the need for the parties to file more detailed testimony. Staff requested that all parties comply with this request in their surrebuttal testimony, which was due to be filed October 11, 1999. However, after the conclusion of the conference and at the request of AT&T, staff agreed to allow the parties additional time to file their surrebuttal testimony. Accordingly, surrebuttal testimony is now due on Friday, October 15, 1999.

Additionally, it was decided at the conference that the parties will be given the opportunity to file supplemental direct and rebuttal testimony relating to the FCC's order on the Rule 319 remand. Accordingly, supplemental direct testimony and rebuttal testimony is now due on Tuesday, October 26, 1999 and Friday, November 5, 1999, respectively.

The CASR will be modified accordingly and a new order on procedure will be issued to reflect these changes. Please do not hesitate to contact me at (850) 413-6216 or Beth Keating at (850) 413-6212 with any additional questions.

Thank you.
