This office has received the attached correspondence of Edward Garcia dated October 8, 1999. The correspondence has not been viewed or considered in any way by Commissioner Jacobs. Re: AT&T & MediaOne; Docket 990957-TP

Commissioners,

Even though most cable television rules are promulgated and enforced by the federal government, I feel that the PSC should scrutinize this merger for its potential ill-effects on Florida's consumers.

As these two giants merge and with TCI already under the AT&T umbrella, it will leave AT&T as the only game in town. Once customers are teased with low rates, they will be stuck with AT&T with few choices if any to leave to. Customer service for these two companies remain to be less than adequate and rates continue to climb despite the Telco Act of 1996 proposed intention to provide competition and reduce rates.

I urge the PSC to take action to ensure that Florida's telephone customers won't endure higher rates as these companies plan to integrate their cable, Internet, and local and long distance services. Failure to accomplish this will be a disservice to the people of Florida by this PSC.

Respectfully,

Edward Garcia
