Re: Application for Transfer of Control of OmniCall, Inc. 991622-TP

Dear Ms. Bayo:

On October 19, 1999, on behalf of Access One Communications Corp., formerly known as CLEC Holding Corp. ("Access One"), OmniCall Acquisition Corp. ("Newco") and OmniCall, Inc. ("OmniCall") (collectively "the Parties"), we sought approval from the Commission for a transaction whereby Newco would merge with and into OmniCall, and OmniCall would become a wholly-owned subsidiary of Access One.

The purpose of this letter is to clarify certain information provided in the original Application. Access One is a holding company that does not hold any certificates of authority to provide telecommunications services in any state. Instead, its wholly-owned subsidiary, The Other Phone Company DBA Access One Communications ("TOPC") holds certificates to provide resold interexchange and local exchange telecommunications services in nine (9) states, including Florida, as of March 7, 1997. At the time of the Merger, TOPC and OmniCall will exist as two discrete wholly-owned subsidiaries of Access One.
