Dear Sir or Madam:

In regards to certified letter dated December 3rd, 1999 in reference to the order to show cause. Please consider the following response.

Please be advised that I myself am the only person authorized and responsible for responding to the inquiries regarding the service violations from the Florida Public Service Commission. I've been out of the office since the last week of July and did not return until December due to a medical emergency which landed me in the hospital having emergency surgery and dealing with extreme and severe medical conditions which had also caused me to become physically unable to perform my responsible duties for Alacrity Communications for over the past 4 months due to circumstances beyond my control. However, I understand the importance of my obligation to respond to the inquiries from the FPSC and have responded in a timely manner in the past with Barbara Bailey up until July which was due to my unexpected illness.

I would like to take this opportunity to sincerely apologize for the delay in responding. I assure you that it will not happen again and also ask that after reviewing and evaluating the enclosed information that you will reconsider and also advise me on any additional information that you may need.

Enclosed you will find the following:

- 1) Written request to cancel J & L certificate and reapply for new certificate under Alacrity Communications, Inc.
