Dear Ms. Bayo:

Enclosed for official filing are an original and fifteen copies of revised tariff sheets nos. 4.5, 6.3, 6.39, and 6.75. Coded copies of each tariff sheet are also enclosed to show the changes to the existing tariff sheets.

All changes on these tariff sheets are related to clarifying the definition of residential service. In the past, the definition of residential service was so narrow that it precluded separately metered detached garages, pools, boat docks, etc. from being on the residential rate. Instead these facilities were billed on the general service rate schedule. The Company's proposed changes are reasonable and practical to include all facilities at a residential premise that are for personal use (rather than business use) on the residential rate.

Upon approval, please return a copy of the approved tariff sheets to my attention.

Sincerely,

Susan D. Ritenour

changes from one applicable rate to another, but, lacking knowledge of changes which may occur at any time in such conditions, the Company cannot guarantee that customers will be served under the most favorable rate, nor make refunds covering the difference between the charges under the rate in effect and those under any other rate applicable to the same service.

A Customer, having selected a rate adapted to his service may not change to another rate within a twelve-month period unless there is a substantial change in the character or conditions of his service. A new Customer will be given reasonable opportunity to determine his service requirements before definitely selecting the most favorable rate therefor.

1.5 RESIDENTIAL SERVICE – Service for all domestic purposes in individually metered dwelling units suitable for year-round family occupancy containing full kitchen facilities. A separate point of service may be placed on the residential rate when it is determined to be at the same premise as the dwelling unit and used exclusively for personal rather than business use (i.e., garages, pumps, pools, boat docks, etc.) Service to commonly-owned condominium and cooperative apartment buildings meeting the following criteria is also considered Residential Service:

- a. 100% of the energy is used exclusively for the co-owners' benefit.
- b. None of the energy is used in any endeavor which sells or rents a commodity or provides service for a fee.
- c. Each point of delivery will be separately metered and billed.
- d. A responsible legal entity is established as the Customer to whom the Company can render its bills for said service.

1.6 GENERAL SERVICE - Any person, organization, firm, or corporation taking electric service to which no other rate schedule is applicable shall be considered a General Service Customer. These may be commercial, or institutional such as nonprofit organizations, religious, educational, philanthropic, fraternal, governmental, or others not listed. The following is an incomplete list which gives some examples of who shall be considered General Service customers:

- 1.6.1 Recognized boarding and rooming houses.
- 1.6.2 An apartment house, except for service rendered direct to individual tenants.
- 1.6.3 Any business house within which the Customer lives merely for convenience or economy, but such Customer, if he desires, shall have the right to have a separate meter installed under the residential rate for his
