Dear Ms. Gilchrist,

We spoke by telephone on January 18, 2000 regarding my request to cancel Certificate #6089 for Red Hawk Communications. As I explained to you over the phone, we sold our payphones on 8/24/99 and all Bell South lines were taken out of our name on 8/15/99. Our one Sprint line was transferred on 9/22/99. On 11/20/99 my husband, Shayne, died unexpectedly. At the present time I have no plans that would require me to keep our certificate current. He died in Indiana and I wasn't able to return to address issues such as this until after the first week in January.

You may have Certificate #6089 under Shayne E. Ryan rather than Red Hawk Communications. I was hoping to cancel the certificate before incurring any additional charges. The letter assigning us this number was signed by the Florida Public Service Commission on April 21, 1999.

I appreciate your assistance in resolving this matter. I would appreciate it if you could fax me a confirmation to the number shown above.

Sincerely,

Cheryl K. Ryan
