To: Frank Harrison
Subject: Dandy Enterprises; TE922

Hello Frank. The owner of this company called me and said that he thought when he sent in his 1998 RAF form that he had written "No longer in business - cancel the certificate" or something to that effect. He also wrote it on the 1999 RAF form, which Admin sent me a copy. Can you please have the 1998 form (and any correspondence that may have come with it) pulled and a copy sent to me? I told him I would check the 1998 form and if it did have that written on it, I would open a docket to voluntarily cancel his certificate with a 1998 effective date.
Thanks.

Mr. Dan Brown, Owner
Dandy Enterprises
10151 University Blvd., Suite 239
Orlando, FL 32817-1981

Dear Mr. Brown:

On January 31, 2000, the Commission received your regulatory assessment fee returns for Dandy Enterprises (TE922) and Reliable Telephone Company (TF693), along with your check for the Reliable certificate. On the Dandy return, someone wrote "No longer in business - part of Reliable Telephone Company."

Until a company notifies the Commission in writing to cancel a certificate or the Commission cancels a certificate for a rule violation, that company is responsible for the regulatory assessment fee. In this case, you did not pay the fee for Dandy's certificate. What this means is that even though Dandy may have merged with Reliable, the company still owes the regulatory assessment fee on the Dandy certificate since the Commission has no record of your notification that it wished to cancel Dandy's certificate. As information, the fee is due on a certificate if it is active for any day during a calendar year.

If you owe the minimum, you need to send a check for the $50.00 fee, $2.50 penalty, and $.50 interest for a total of $53.00, along with a letter requesting cancellation of Dandy's certificate. The $53.00 is what is due if your check is postmarked in February. Penalty and interest continue to accrue each 30 days past the due date (January 31, 2000).

Rule 25-24.514(2)(a)(b), Florida Administrative Code, Cancellation of a Certificate states:

- (2) If a certificated company desires to cancel its certificate, it shall request cancellation from the Commission in writing and shall provide the following with its request:
 - (a) Statement of intent and date to pay Regulatory Assessment Fee.
 - (b) Statement of why the certificate is proposed to be cancelled.

Mr. Dan Brown, Owner

February 3, 2000

A copy of the rule is enclosed. Since the 1999 fee is already past due, that must first be paid. Also, you need to advise when the 2000 fee will be paid.

Please review this information and respond in writing by February 18, 2000. Once we receive your check and letter, I will open a docket to cancel your certificate with an effective date of January 31, 2000, the date we received the return.

If you have any questions, just let me know. I can be reached at (850) 413-6502-voice, (850) 413-6503-fax, and by internet e-mail at pisler@psc.state.fl.us.

Sincerely,

Paula J. Isler, Research Assistant
Bureau of Service Evaluation & Compliance

Enclosure

25-24.514 Cancellation of a Certificate.

- (1) The Commission may cancel a company's certificate for any of the following reasons:
 - (a) Violation of the terms and conditions under which the authority was originally granted;
 - (b) Violation of Commission rules or orders;
 - (c) Violation of Florida Statutes; or,
 - (d) Failure to provide service for a period of six (6) months.
- (2) If a certificated company desires to cancel its certificate, it shall request cancellation from the Commission in writing and shall provide the following with its request.
 - (a) Statement of intent and date to pay Regulatory Assessment Fee.
 - (b) Statement of why the certificate is proposed to be cancelled.
- (3) Cancellation of a certificate shall be ordered subject to the holder providing the information required by subsection (2).
