We don't have any use for this traffic data, so if it's OK from a legal perspective, these documents could be returned.

06334-95 is Bell witness Best's exhibits and consists of "monthly message and calling rate per access line," one-way calling rates, two-way calling rates, long distance calling rates, conversion costs, rates under 25/25 calling plan--is this considered traffic studies?

07141-95 appears to be similar if not the same as 06334-95

09690-95 is apparently an amendment to 07141-95

In this docket, which closed in 1996, there are 3 confidential which were never ruled on:

06334-95, 07141-95, and 9690-95

Would each of you be in agreement that it is okay to return these
