Re: Docket No. 991471-TC

Dear Paula Isler,

Enclosed you will find all the information and documentation requested in regards to phone conversation with Mr. Ray Kennedy on April 13, 2000.

- 1) Proof of filing for registration in the state of Florida. Note: Registration paper work for the state was returned because they needed a Certificate of Existence and Registered Agent which both original and certified copies have been ordered. Please see enclosed confirmation.
- 2) Be advised that the routing of our O- calls have been corrected by reprogramming our registers/options code #236 in our switch board and are now being routed through the local exchange company being Bell South.
- 3) Alacrity Communications, Inc. would like to propose $2800.00 which could be paid in 6 monthly installments as an alternative to the fines imposed to settle this docket.

I sincerely regret that this matter has become so out of control and truly hope that we can compromise and everyone involved can agree and come to terms with this issue so that we all can move forward with a fresh start.

I'm fully confident that all of Alacrity's phone's are in compliance with the Florida Public Service Commission rules and regulations and assure you that this situation will not happen again. We have a technician that is out in the field every day now who maintains and corrects any problems that may arise with our phones and reports to the office on a daily basis.

I apologize for the delay and inconvenience that this matter may have caused and I sincerely appreciate all your help as well as your patience!!!

If you have any questions or need any additional information, please contact me at 912-882-6253 or @ 912- 729-7880.

Sincerely,

Sherry Carter
