RE: Docket No. 992009-TC

Dear Mr. Zfat:

On September 23, 1999, I called you concerning the balance of the 1998 Regulatory Assessment Fee (RAF). You asked me to fax you a bill to (954) 735-3826, which I faxed on the same date. You advised that you would pay it immediately upon receipt of the bill.

I opened this docket on December 23, 1999 since the Commission had not received the 1998 balance, plus the statutory penalty and interest charges for 1992, 1994, 1995, and 1998. On April 26, 2000, Order No. PSC-00-0822-PAA-TC was issued, which imposed a $500 fine or canceled your pay telephone certificate.

On May 1, 2000, you called and advised that you wanted to keep your certificate active and asked me to mail information on how to resolve this docket. I mailed the 1999 RAF return, along with information on how to make a settlement offer on May 2. On May 16, the Commission received two money orders from you. One money order was in the amount of $126.59, which paid the past due amount in full. The other money order was in the amount of $50.00. Since you did not advise what this $50.00 was for, the Commission's Division of Administration has credited your account with $50.00 toward the 2000 fee. You also included a note that stated "I will make sure all settlements will be paid on the right timing."

Unfortunately, I cannot accept that note as a settlement proposal. If you still want to keep your certificate active, you will need to write the Commission a letter and state that you have taken steps to prevent future late payments of the regulatory assessment fee and that you propose to pay a $100 settlement to resolve this docket. The settlement letter needs to have your company name and docket number and be signed by you.

As I explained on the May 2nd cover sheet, the $100 should not be paid at this time. Instead, it will become due within 10 business days after the order is issued, if the Commission accepts your settlement proposal.

If I do not receive an acceptable settlement offer by July 3, 2000, I will consider that you no longer wish to pursue a settlement. I will then recommend to the Commission that Order No. PSC-00-0822-PAA-TC be rendered a final order and your certificate will be canceled.

If you have any questions, just let me know. I can be reached at (850) 413-6502-voice, (850) 413-6503-fax, and by internet e-mail at pisler@psc.state.fl.us.

Sincerely,

Paula J. Isler, Research Assistant
