I spoke with Legal and since Tower Communications is a corporate name and they are simply offering the services under the name of United Southern Communications there is no need to file an amendment to this request for approval. However, the title on the CASR will need to be revised to reflect that Tower Communications is indeed Tower Communications, Inc. d/b/a United Southern Telecom.

THANKS!

You will receive this new resale agreement docket soon. Bell shows the "other company" as Tower Communications, Inc. We have an ALEC company (TX319) with a d/b/a attached to that name. Can you check to see if they are one and the same? If so, Bell will need to file an amendment to this request for approval.

Thanks.
