amount of $100,000 each or have their respective certificates canceled for violation of Rule 25-24.485, Florida Administrative Code. Each company's response should contain specific allegations of fact and law. If any company fails to respond to the show cause order, or request a hearing pursuant to Chapter 120, Florida Statutes, within the 21-day response period and the fine is not paid within 10 business days after the conclusion of the 21-day period, the facts should be deemed admitted, and the right to a hearing waived. Thus, the Company's respective certificates should be canceled. If the fines are paid, they should be remitted by the Commission to the State of Florida General Revenue Fund, pursuant to Section 364.285, Florida Statutes.

Issue 2: Should these dockets be closed?

Recommendation: If staff's recommendation in Issue 1 is approved, NOS and its affiliated companies will have 21 days from issuance of the Commission's show cause order to respond in writing why they should not be fined in the amount proposed, or, if the fines are not paid, have their certificates revoked. If the Companies timely respond to the show cause order, these dockets should remain open pending resolution of the show cause proceedings. If the Companies do not respond to the Show Cause Order, the fines should be deemed assessed. Staff recommends that if the Companies fail to respond to the Order to Show Cause, and the fines are not
