TARIFF FORMAT

- A. Sheet Numbering - Sheet numbers appear in the upper right corner of the page. Sheets are numbered sequentially. However, new sheets are occasionally added to the tariff. When a new sheet is added between sheets already in effect, a decimal is added. For example, a new sheet added between sheets 14 and 15 would be 14.1.
- B. Sheet Revision Numbers - Revision numbers appear in the upper right corner of each page. These numbers are used to determine the most current sheet version on file with the Florida Public Service Commission. For example, the 4th revised Sheet 14 cancels the 3rd revised Sheet 14. Because of various suspension periods, deferrals, etc. the Florida Public Service Commission follows in its tariff approval process, the most current sheet number on file with the Commission is not always the tariff in effect. Consult the Check Sheet for the sheet currently in effect.
- C. Paragraph Numbering Sequence - There are nine levels of paragraph coding. Each level of coding is subservient to its next higher level:

 - 2.
 - 2.1
 - 2.1.1
 - 2.1.1.A.
 - 2.1.1.A.1.
 - 2.1.1.A.1.(a)
 - 2.1.1.A.1.(a).I.
 - 2.1.1.A.1.(a).I.(i).
 - 2.1.1.A.1.(a).I.(i).(1)
- D. Check Sheets - When a tariff filing is made with the Florida Public Service Commission, an updated Check Sheet accompanies the tariff filing. The Check Sheet lists the sheets contained in the tariff, with a cross reference to the current revision number. When new pages are added, the Check Sheet is changed to reflect the revision. All revisions made in a given filing are designated by an asterisk (*). There will be no other symbols used on this page if these are the only changes made to it (i.e., the format, etc. remain the same, just revised revision levels on some pages.) The tariff user should refer to the latest Check Sheet to find out if a particular sheet is the most current on file with the Florida Public Service Commission.

Patrick Gentemann, Chief Executive Officer

Patrick Gentemann is the founder and CEO of Futur Telecom America, Inc. (FTAI). In this capacity, he is responsible for the overall development and implementation of the company's strategic plan - to deliver a superior telecommunications product at very competitive rates.

As a long distance telecommunications specialist, he has been instrumental in setting up and developing two other long distance companies over the last 6 years:

- North American Communications Control Inc. in New York, where he designed and programmed the computer systems for order processing, C.D.R., billing and customer service. In addition, he was the top sales manager for the company, personally responsible for 1/3 of the call volume.
- Futur Telecom S.A. (FTSA) in Paris, France, where he is capitalizing on the recently deregulated French Telecommunications market. Mr. Gentemann founded the company and assembled a team of experts to tap into the mid-size corporate market as well as the call center market. FTSA is already a leader in those two niche markets.

Mr. Gentemann has always put his entrepreneurial and computer-programming skills to the benefit of his customers, by providing personalized customer service, superior billing and efficient processing.

Stanislas de Magnienville, President

Stanislas de Magnienville has been the president of Futur Telecom America since the inception of the company. For the past five years, he has worked very closely with Patrick Gentemann in the U.S. and in Europe with his various telecommunication projects.

His primary responsibilities include overseeing the transition of the company from an agent to being a value-added reseller. He developed Futur Telecom America's marketing strategy as a niche market provider for small and medium-sized international-oriented companies.

He graduated in 1987 from Syracuse University (M.A. with a major in international business) and also holds a Master's Degree in Political Science from the University of Strasbourg (France).
