RE: Docket No. 990973-TI; Application for Certification

Dear Mr. Peacock:

On March 1, April 12, May 30, and June 8, 2000, I either mailed or faxed to you requests to make changes to Spartan Communications Corporation of North Carolina's initial tariff. As of this date, I have not received this information. Therefore, if Spartan Communications Corporation of North Carolina is providing telecommunication service in Florida without an approved tariff Spartan Communications Corporation of North Carolina could be subject to legal action in accordance with our rules and regulations.

Failure to respond by August 30, 2000, may result in legal action and Spartan Communications Corporation of North Carolina could be subject to a fine of up to $25,000.00 for each offense pursuant to Section 364.285, Penalties, Florida Statutes, for every day it has been in violation.

Further, if you fail to respond to this letter by August 30, 2000, a recommendation will be made to the Commission to order all certificated telecommunication companies in Florida to discontinue providing telecommunication service to Spartan Communications Corporation of North Carolina.

This correspondence represents an interpretation by the staff of the Florida Public Service Commission regarding the statutes and rules which appear to apply to your circumstances. It is provided for your convenience and is not a formal decision by the Commission. Re: Docket No. 990973-TI; Application for Certification.

Dear Mr. Peacock:

In reviewing the above subject application it has come to our attention that a interexchange telecommunications certificate (IXC) was granted to Spartan Communications Corporation of North Carolina, effective November 11, 1999, however, a alternative local exchange company (ALEC) price list was submitted with the IXC application.

Please inform this Commission of what type of service you propose to do in Florida so we can make the necessary corrections to your certificate.

I can be reached at (850) 413-6586, if you have any questions.

Sincerely,
