WE ASSIGNED YOU AN EMPLOYER IDENTIFICATION NUMBER (EIN)

Thank you for your Form SS-4, Application for Employer Identification Number (EIN). We assigned you EIN 59-3661044. This EIN will identify your business account, tax returns, and documents, even if you have no employees. Please keep this notice in your permanent records.

Use your complete name and EIN as shown above on all federal tax forms, payments, and related correspondence. If you use any variation in your name or EIN, it may cause a delay in processing, incorrect information in your account, or cause you to be assigned more than one EIN.

Based on the information shown on your Form SS-4, you must file the following forms(s) by the date we show.

Form 1120

03/15/2001

Please file your Form by the due date shown above. If the due date above has passed and you have not yet filed, please file your Form by 08-21-2000. If we don't receive your form by that date, we will charge additional penalties and interest. We charge penalties and interest from the due date of the return until it is filed.

Your assigned tax classification is based on information obtained from your Form SS-4. It is not a legal determination of your tax classification and is not binding on the Service. If you want a determination on your tax classification, you may seek a private letter ruling from the Service under the procedures set forth in Rev. Proc. 98-01, 1998-1 I.R.B. 7 (or the superceding revenue procedure for the year at issue).

If you need help in determining what your tax year is, you can get Publication 538, Accounting Periods and Methods, at your local IRS office.

If you have any questions about the forms shown or the date they are due, you may call us at 1-800-829-1040 or write to us at the address shown above.

If you're required to deposit for employment taxes (Forms 941, 943, 940, 945, CT-1, or 1042), excise taxes (Form 720), or income taxes (Form 1120), we will send an initial supply of Federal Tax Deposit (FTD) coupon books within six weeks. You can use the enclosed coupons if you need to make a deposit before you receive your supply. Start your business off right - pay your taxes the easy way. Pay through the Electronic Federal Tax Payment System (EFTPS). For information about EFTPS, call 1-800-829-3676 and request Publication 966, EFTPS Answers to the Most Commonly Asked Questions.

FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

PROVINET COMMUNICATIONS INC.

Financial Resources Statement

Provinet Communications, Inc.

Statement of Financial Capability

Provinet Communications, Inc. (Provinet) has sufficient financial capability to provide the requested telecommunication services in the State of Florida, the financial capability to maintain these services, and the financial capability to meet its lease and ownership obligations. Please see our accompanying projected balance sheet, income statement and statement of cash flows of operations for the first 36 months.

A high level review of the Company's financial projections are as follows:

Balance Sheet & Statement of Cash Flows: - The Company is starting operations in Fall 2000 with a cash infusion of $2 million. This cash infusion will support the Company's investments of Property, Plant & Equipment. The investment of PP&E will start in month three. The cash infusion will support the Company's start up operations. The Company projects positive cash from operations beginning in month eight.

The source of the cash infusion of $2 million is from a note payable to a commercial bank. The Company will pay off the note over 36 monthly payments starting in month thirteen. The payments will begin approximately five months after the Company is projecting a positive cash flow from operations.

Income Statement - The Company projected sales for the first twelve months is $10.8 million, e , $38.5 million, and 66.1 million. The Company will experience strong gross margins in the second twelve months of $5.9 million, 20.6 million and 35.3 million, respectively. The Company's gross margin will be achieved through strong relationships between Company representatives and the property managers of the developments. Due to these strong relationships, the Company expects a relatively low overhead and moderate operational expenses to maintain the highest level of service to these developments.

The most important item in the analysis is that the Company expects to turn a positive cash flow in the eighth month. This positive cash flow takes the monthly note payable payment and monthly investment of PP&E into consideration. This projection is realistic and documents that the Company understands the financial and technical issues of being successful in this service offering.

Provinet has sufficient financial capability to provide the requested telecommunication services and meets all lease and ownership obligations. The Company is positioned both financially and operationally to provide customers with real retail value in a cost efficient manner for many years to come.

PROVINET COMMUNICATIONS MASTER FORECAST													BALANCE SHEET

ATTACHMENT III
MANAGERIAL AND TECHNICAL CAPABILITIES

Provinet Communications Inc.

Management Team

The following are members of the Provinet management team. These individuals are scheduled to join the team in September and October of 2000.

CEO - This individual has designed and developed national and regional broadband networks for most of his career. These networks carried both data and voice traffic and were also developed to host value added applications and services. These services included access to the Internet. He also developed and managed relationships with strategic partners that improved the market position of the companies he managed. The partners included major telecommunications companies. Earlier in his career he spent several years as a CFO which honed both his financial skills and his understanding of the importance of knowing and controlling costs at all times.

COO - The Chief Operating Officer is responsible for day to day execution of the company's plan. This individual brings a broad management background to Provinet. His experience includes managing large companies of 1,200 and more employees. His recent performance in the communications industry as an executive in a Competitive Local Exchange Carrier (CLEC) demonstrates his phenomenal skill as a manager. One measure of his performance is demonstrated by the production of the company's sales staff. Utilizing his methodology the average production for each sale person was 3 times the industry average.

CTO - The Chief Technology Officer brings a deep and very broad understanding of the technologies employed by Provinet in producing its services. Most importantly he brings the skill sets that Provinet will need to take advantage of emerging technology. His education includes double BS in Computer Science and in Economics from the University of Florida. His credentials include the highest technical certification in the communications industry - the CCIE (Cisco Certified Internetwork Engineer) from Cisco. His work experience includes designing and building major national ATM backbones.

Vice President of Engineering - This executive has a proven track record and years of experience in installing and managing many very large, national and international telecom networks. Over a two-year period, for example, he and his team installed and managed 35 Class 5 Nortel Switches in the US and in Europe. He has at least 5 years of direct experience with the equipment that Provinet will be deploying initially. This individual is an invaluable addition to the team.

Director of Marketing - A key individual on the team who has demonstrated the highest level of ability and production in each position he has held in the industry. He has consistently out-performed his peers in each company he has been with. This includes a Fortune 100 Telecom company and a CLEC where he was consistently the top Sales Manager.

There are several other key members of the fine team the Provinet has assembled to execute its plan. This team shares in the equity of the company and is provided excellent compensation and benefits.
