Re: Correction of August 15, 2000 notification

Mr. Spilman:

On July 18, 2000, the United States Court of Appeals for the Eighth Circuit issued a decision in Iowa Utilities Board v. FCC, Case No. 96-3321 (the "Eighth Circuit Decision") which, among other things, vacated FCC rules 47 CFR §§51.505(b)(1) and 51.609. The Eighth Circuit Decision will be effective upon issuance of a Mandate. This Decision affects certain provisions of the Agreement, including many of the rates and/or the wholesale discount(s) contained in the Agreement.

Pursuant to paragraphs 2.2 and 2.3 of the Agreement, either Party may require that the affected provisions of the Agreement be renegotiated in good faith and amended to reflect the Eighth Circuit Decision, effective as of the effective date of such Decision. The rates and terms currently in the Agreement that are affected by the Eighth Circuit Decision shall be treated as interim, subject to true-up to the effective date of the Eighth Circuit Decision.

A copy of this letter and the Master Interconnection and Resale Agreement dated July 18, 2000 between Broadslate Networks of Florida, Inc. and Sprint-Florida, Incorporated will be filed with the Florida Public Service Commission.

Sincerely,

John W. Clayton
