Re: Name Change from Rapid Transmit Technology, Inc. to WaKuL, Inc.

Dear Ms. McCoy:

Thank you for your assistance yesterday morning. As my assistant, Renée Dullaghan, explained, our company was originally named Rapid Transmit Technology, Inc., and received a certificate (number 7101) as an alternative local exchange service company. (See attached letter from you dated August 20, 1999).

We experienced a name change from Rapid Transmit Technology, Inc., to WaKuL, Inc. We had intended to do a name change but in error we established another corporation, WaKuL, Inc., and a new foreign profit corporation was established, when only a name change was intended. There are no changes in ownership or officers. They are, in fact, the same company.

I understand that there is no need to resubmit our price list, but, per your request, we are providing labels to put over our existing price list pages, also enclosed. Our correct address is:

WaKuL, Inc., 7809 Cooper Road, Cincinnati, OH 45242

In addition, I have enclosed a copy of a fax from Travis Tindal at BellSouth in which he requests a letter from you verifying that the process of updating our company name to WaKuL, Inc., has begun. So, as you can see, a letter from you to BellSouth, would help us to expedite this matter. Again, thank you for your help.

Sincerely,

WAKUL, INC.
