On August 18, 2000, Verizon Florida Inc. (Verizon) and AirTouch Paging (AirTouch) filed a request for approval of an amendment to the existing interconnection agreement pursuant to 47
U.S.C. §252(e) of the Telecommunications Act of 1996 (the Act).
The amendment to the existing agreement is incorporated by reference herein. A copy of the amendment to the existing

The existing agreement governs the relationship between the companies regarding local interconnection and the exchange of traffic pursuant to 47 U.S.C. § 251. Under 47 U.S.C. § 252(a)(1), the agreement shall include a detailed schedule of itemized charges for interconnection and each service or network element included in the agreement.

Upon consideration of the proposed amendment to the existing agreement, we find that it complies with the Act; thus, we hereby approve it. Verizon and AirTouch are also required to file any subsequent supplements or modifications to their agreement with the Commission for review under the provisions of 47 U.S.C. § 252(e).

We note that AirTouch does not currently hold a Florida certificate to provide alternative local exchange telecommunications service, and therefore, it cannot provide alternative local exchange telecommunications services or land-line services under this agreement until it obtains a certificate from this Commission.

Based on the foregoing, it is ORDERED by the Florida Public Service Commission that the amendment to the existing interconnection agreement between Verizon Florida Inc. and Verizon, is incorporated by reference in this Order, and is hereby approved.
