SUPRA TELECOM'S MOTION FOR EXTENTION OF TIME STATED IN THE CURRENT CASR

Supra Telecommunications & Information Systems, Inc. ("Supra Telecom"), by undersigned counsel, pursuant to Rule 28-106.204 of the Florida Administrative Code, moves for an extension of time as stated in the current CASR, and in support hereof state:

- 1. The Issue Identification meeting in this case is currently scheduled for January 8, 2000.
2. Supra Telecom and BellSouth currently are engaged in Commercial Arbitration in Georgia.
3. The Parties to the Commercial Arbitration have Exhibits, Pre-hearing Statements, Pre-hearing Conference and the Hearing occurring on or subsequent to January 8 and throughout the month of January.
4. Supra requires the participation and attendance of some of the same individuals during both this Arbitration's Issue Identification meeting and the Commercial Arbitration proceeding in the month of January.

5. Therefore, Supra will be unable to have all of the necessary resources to adequately and fairly participate in the issue identification meeting on January 8th, 2000, or at any time during January, but would be able to adequately and fairly participate in the meeting during the first part of February, 2000.

6. Extending the date of the Issue Identification meeting would necessitate extension of the subsequent dates pursuant to the CASR.

7. BellSouth would not be unfairly prejudiced should Supra Telecom's Motion for an Extension of Time pursuant to the current CASR be granted.

8. Supra Telecom did attempt to resolve this issue with BellSouth prior to filing this Motion.

WHEREFORE, Supra Telecom respectfully requests that this Honorable Commission grant the Motion for an Extension of Time, and for such other relief as is deemed equitable and just.
