Marlene, we received a consummating order today for issuance in this docket. In checking the order, we discovered that a consummating order had already been prepared and issued for this docket and 3 others: Order No. PSC-00-0318, issued 2/17. However, at the time it was issued, the order was not copied into Docket 991784 in CMS (RAR error) and thus was not faxed or mailed to the party in the docket. At this point, it seems the best way to correct the situation is to send a copy of the order to the party in 991784, rather than issue a separate CO order for this docket, since there is already a CO order that includes 991784. I will wait to hear from you. Kay
