Re: Reclamation of the following NXX Code:

NPA	NXX	Notice Date	Effective Date	Part 4 Due Date
954	317	10/27/00	04/21/00	10/18/00

Dear Ms. Jernagin:

On October 17, 2000, the Florida Public Service Commission (FPSC), at its Internal Affairs meeting, agreed to administer the NXX reclamation process for the State of Florida. Pursuant to the December, 2000 reclamation list, the North American Numbering Plan Administrator (NANPA) sent a notice to your company regarding the company's failure to activate the above NXX code, and has indicated that you have failed to file the necessary Confirmation of Code Activation Form (Part 4) within the prescribed 6-month period.

Unless a written request for extension of time in which to activate the code is received by the FPSC within 15 days of the receipt of this notice, the Commission will instruct NANPA to reclaim the above NXX Code assigned to your company.

An extension request will be considered if the reason for failure to activate the NXX code is due to reasons beyond your control, such as a delay in interconnection with another carrier, or a delay by a single customer who will be assigned the full NXX code. You must also provide verifiable details that your inability to activate the code is caused by one of the above reasons. You should identify the customer or other carrier causing the delay and specify a contact of that customer or carrier that the FPSC can communicate with to verify the information in your extension request. Your company may avail itself of the statutory confidentially provisions of Section 364.183, Florida Statutes, and Rule 25-22.006, Florida Administrative Code, if it believes it necessary in complying with this process.

You must also demonstrate that returning the code and reapplying at a later date would be harmful to you or the end-use customer. The burden of proof lies with the carrier requesting the extension and mere statements to that effect will not be acceptable. You must specify and justify the length of the extension of time needed to activate the code. The duration of initial Part 4 extensions will be determined on a case-by-case basis.

Requests for extension of activation dates should be sent to :

Robert J. Casey
Regulatory Analyst Supervisor
Florida Public Service Commission
Division of Competitive Services
2540 Shumard Oak Drive
Tallahassee, Florida 32399-0850

You will be notified in writing of either a grant or denial of a request for an extension within seven (7) business days of the receipt of your request for an extension. In the case of a denial of a request, NANPA will be instructed to reclaim the NXX code. In the case of a grant of a request, NANPA will be instructed to reclaim the code if the Part 4 form is not received at the end of the granted extension period without further notification by the FPSC. If you have any questions, you may contact Bob Casey at (850) 413-6974.

Sincerely,

Walter D'Haeseleer
