CASE BACKGROUND

On July 7, 1999, Orlando Telephone Company (OTC) filed a request for arbitration concerning its complaint against Sprint-Florida, Incorporated (Sprint) regarding the enforcement of their interconnection agreement. On July 28, 1999, Sprint filed its answer. On September 16, 1999, Order No. PSC-99-1803-PCO-TP establishing procedure was issued. In that Order, the hearing date was set for January 20, 2000. By Order No. PSC-00-0292-PCO-TP dated February 14, 2000, the hearing was rescheduled for August 23, 2000. In the meantime, the Prehearing conference was held February 28, 2000.

On July 19, 2000, the parties were notified that the hearing was being moved to August 14, 2000. On August 4, 2000, OTC filed a Motion to Postpone and Reschedule Hearing (Motion) from August 14, 2000. By Order No. PSC-00-1463-PCO-TP, OTC's Motion was granted and the hearing was rescheduled for December 20, 2000. On

DISCUSSION OF ISSUES

ISSUE 1: Should this docket be closed?

RECOMMENDATION: Yes. There are no outstanding issues before this Commission for consideration; therefore, staff recommends that this docket be closed.

STAFF ANALYSIS: In its withdrawal, OTC states that it has settled its dispute with Sprint, and is no longer in need of the Commission's intervention in the matter. Because there are no outstanding issues for the Commission to consider, staff recommends that this docket be closed.
