Dear Ms. Bayo:

During its January 16, 2001 conference, the Florida Public Service Commission ("Commission") approved Network Plus's offer of $100.00 as a final settlement of the matter in Docket No. 001209-TI. Accordingly, enclosed is Network Plus's check in the amount of $100.00 made payable to the Florida Public Service Commission. With this payment, Network Plus has complied with the terms of its settlement offer. Therefore, we respectfully request that the Commission acknowledge, in writing, receipt of this settlement check and confirm that this matter is now closed.

Please date-stamp and return the file copy of this transmittal letter and check to us in the self-addressed, postage paid envelope enclosed for this purpose [Lisa: both Network Plus and Miller Isar should have file copies of this transmittal letter and settlement check as well as any written acknowledgement by the Commission. I suggest that you either enclose a postage-paid envelope addressed to my attention at Miller Isar, or fax me a date-stamped copy of the letter and check when you receive them from the Commission.]
