ORDER APPROVING MID-COURSE CORRECTION

BY THE COMMISSION:

On January 16, 2001, City Gas Company of Florida ("City Gas") filed a petition for relief in the form of a mid-course correction to its currently authorized purchased gas adjustment ("PGA") cap to become effective for the period February 6, 2001, through December 31, 2001. Jurisdiction over this matter is vested in this Commission by several provisions of Chapter 366, Florida Statutes, including Sections 366.04, 366.05, and 366.06, Florida Statutes.

By Order No. PSC-00-2383-FOF-GU, issued December 12, 2000, we established City Gas' currently authorized PGA cap for the period January 2001 through December 2001 of 79.093 cents per therm. This factor was derived by dividing projected purchased gas costs of $34,038,905 by projected therm sales of 51,525,916.

In its petition, City Gas indicates that it now projects an underrecovery of $6,867,014 in purchased gas costs as a result of "an unanticipated increase in gas costs on a national basis" caused by a significant increase in demand for natural gas. To address this projected underrecovery, City Gas requests approval to increase its authorized PGA cap from 79.093 cents per therm to $1.06533 per therm for the remainder of the January 2001 through December 2001 recovery period.

We note that increasing City Gas' PGA cap from 79.093 cents per therm to $1.06533 per therm during the period February 6, 2001, (the date of our vote) through December 31, 2001, would cause a $6.86 increase per month for residential customers using 25 therms, if the cap is charged. This increase would not eliminate the full amount of the projected underrecovery. However, increasing the PGA cap now will mitigate the impact of City Gas' projected underrecovery on ratepayers during the January 2002 through December 2002 recovery period.

City Gas' purchased gas costs have increased as a result of drastic increases in the price of natural gas during the current winter season (2000-2001). Since we approved City Gas' currently authorized PGA cap in December 2000, colder than normal winter weather across the mid-west and northeast United States and historically low natural gas storage levels have caused an unprecedented increase in natural gas cost on a national basis. Further, there are no current indications that natural gas prices will experience any meaningful decrease in the next several months.

Based on the foregoing, we find that City Gas' request to increase its PGA cap from 79.093 cents per therm to $1.06533 per therm is reasonable, and we approve the mid-course correction effective with all meter readings taken on and after February 6, 2001, the date of our vote in this matter, through December 31, 2001.

We recognize that there will not be time to conduct a prudence review of City Gas' re-projections of purchased gas costs prior to implementing this increase in City Gas' PGA factor. However, the prudence of these purchased gas costs will be determined at our annual hearing in Docket No. 010003-GU, scheduled for November 2001. If the increase in City Gas' PGA cap is ultimately found imprudent, City Gas' ratepayers will suffer no harm because any costs found imprudent will be disallowed for recovery and will be credited to the ratepayers through this docket's true-up mechanism.

Based on the foregoing, it is
