FPSC-RT CORPS-REPORTING

RECONSIDERATION OF DENIAL OF NOTICE OF INTERVENTION OF PEGGY ARVANITAS, (THE LONE CONSUMER)

By petition, I requested permission to intervene in this preceding. I filed four weeks before I was ultimately denied. And it was a Friday before a Monday morning Pre-hearing, of which I had already made arrangements for a Tallahassee trip. Of course, I believe I was denied illegitimately, as Mr. Fordham, the PSC attorney on the case holds a grudge against me because his dear friend Diane Caldwell had to leave the Public Service Commission through no fault of mine. And he feels this is a "payback" for her. So that we can all read together, I am quoting you the first few sentences of my Notice of Intervention that gives the correct and specific reason why I can intervene in a docket against Verizon, since I live in Pinellas County, but sell real estate in Pinellas (727) , Hillisborough (813) and Pasco counties(813). So that we may assist Mr. Fordham in his objective review to deny me, and have Commissioner Baez sign the order, I will paraphrase it for all of you.

"Peggy Arvanitas is a Realtor, licenced under Mike Spithoyanis, broker of RE/MAX 1st Class Inc., selling real estate in Pinellas, Pasco, and Hillisborough counties."

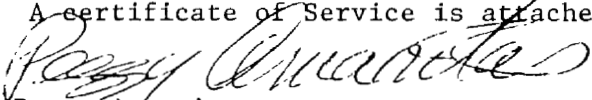

Pursuant to Rule 25-22.039, Florida Administrative Code, persons seeking to become parties in a proceeding must demonstrate that they are entitled to participate as a matter of constitutional or statutory right ... If you work or reside in an affected area, I believe that meets the test.

Mr. Fordham takes the last part of my paragraph in my Notice of Intervention and says I should be excluded because I fail the test for "substantial interest" which is the second prong of the Florida Administrative Code quoted above. Because I have already qualified under the first prong, I wish to go further with the "tag team champions" Fordham and Baez. Since maybe , in the future a little old Grandma or Grandpa might want to punish themselves, and attempt to do service for their area in Florida, can we qualify "substantial interest?" Must I have lost more than $1.00 a month, or might lose more than $1.00 a month with the advent of a Billion dollar phone company's action? If that were the case, we would have no pay phone complaints or dockets . They are only 35 cents. Please tell us all, because I believe I just made HISTORY, being the only Consumer in a Public Service Commission docket DENIED BY THE PUBLIC SERVICE COMMISSION while I work and reside in the TAMPA BAY AREA.

Therefore, I am requesting I be reinstated immediately, as this was a subjective attempt on an attorney of the Public Service Commission's watch, to keep me from "playing" in this lovely "playpen" I sarcastically refer to, on grand occasions, as the TELEPHONE SERVICE COMMISSION.

A certificate of Service is attached to this document.
