Re: Docket No. 010433-TC
Rack-N-Q Billiards

Dear Mr. Hess:

A docket has been opened by staff of the Florida Public Service Commission for nonpayment of the 2000 Regulatory Assessment Fee (RAF), plus statutory penalty and interest charges, which was due January 30, 2001, and not providing the Commission with the company's updated reporting requirements (address, telephone number, liaison, etc.). Late notices were mailed February 21, 2000, and to date, Commission records show that payment has not been received.

It is staff's intention to file a recommendation denying your company's request for a voluntary cancellation, to cancel your company's certificate on the Commission's own motion, and to forward any unpaid amounts to the Florida Comptroller's Office for further collection attempts. The Commissioners will vote at an upcoming Agenda Conference whether or not to accept staff's recommendation. A Proposed Agency Action Order will then be issued within 20 days after the vote and your company will have 21 days to protest the Order.

If the Order is not protested and the past due amount, including statutory penalty and interest charges, is not paid, then the certificate will be cancelled. Therefore, it is important that you contact staff as soon as possible, but no later than April 30, 2001, to find out what your options are.

For options, please contact Paula Isler at (850) 413-6502-voice, (850) 413-6503-fax, at the address below, or via internet e-mail at pisler@psc.state.fl.us.
