Re: Docket No. 010449-TC

Dear Mr. Sonne:

The Commission has received your handwritten note on the first page of my April 17 letter to you with what appears to be a request for cancellation. There are two kinds of cancellations. The first is voluntary, which is normally granted if the company is in good standing with the Commission and does not have a past due balance of the regulatory assessment fee (RAF), including statutory penalty and interest charges. The other is involuntary. If a company is not in good standing and has an outstanding balance of the RAF, the Commission normally cancels the certificate on its own motion for a rule violation. In this case, Docket No. 010449-TC was established for nonpayment of the 2000 RAF, including statutory penalty and interest charges for the years 1996 and 2000.

The regulatory assessment fee is assessed if a certificate is active for any one day during a calendar year. The RAF is due by January 30 of each year, unless the 30th falls on a weekend, then the fee is due by the next working day, for the previous year. If payment for the RAF is mailed after the due date, then statutory penalty and interest charges are applicable.

According to Commission records, your company has an outstanding balance of the RAF and/or penalty and interest charges. A breakdown of the charges is attached. Depending upon when your check is postmarked, penalty and interest charges will continue to accrue. The 2000 and 2001 RAF return forms are attached.

The effective date of a voluntary cancellation is the date that the Commission received a company's request for cancellation. In this case, the Commission has not received a prior request for cancellation, and in fact, did not receive your recent note until April 25, 2001, therefore, the company will owe the 2001 RAF, even if the company discontinued its payphone "at least two years ago." Rule 25-24.514, Florida Administrative Code, provides that a company requesting voluntary cancellation must either pay the 2001 RAF or provide a date certain that it will be paid. For example, within 30 days after the Commission Order is issued granting the voluntary cancellation.

Therefore, based on the above information, I cannot recommend a voluntary cancellation of your certificate unless the past due balance is paid. Please respond in writing by May 15, 2001, and let me know how you wish to proceed. In the meantime, if you wish to discuss this or have any questions, just let me know. I can be reached at (850) 413-6502-voice, (850) 413-6503-fax, by internet e-mail at pisler@psc.state.fl.us, or at the above address. As information, if the Commission does not receive a response to this letter by the date listed above, it is staff's intention to recommend that your certificate be cancelled on the Commission's own motion and any unpaid balance forwarded to the Florida Comptroller's Office for further collection efforts.

Sincerely,

Paula J. Isler, Research Assistant
