Southern Union Company, d/b/a South Florida Natural Gas, requested and was granted confidential treatment of financial information it provided to staff regarding its application for authority to issue and sell securities (Document No. 06843-00). Staff has reviewed this information and has determined that the documents are, in fact, what the company asserts them to be. Staff supports the company's assertions that the material is confidential business information, because it includes reports of internal auditors and sensitive financial information. Staff has completed its review of this information and the information may be returned to the company.
