Based on the information provided below, Docket 001815-TP is reopened. Please file an original CASR immediately to reflect proper staff assignments and action needed to dispose of the case. Since the docket was closed in January, does the 90-day clock for approval start over today?

Linda, Please ensure that a copy of this e-mail is placed in the docket file.

This Docket was closed on January 19, 2001, as it appeared that the agreement filed required no action by the Commission. We have, however, received a conflicting view of the necessity of Commission action from one of the parties to this agreement. As such, we probably need to reopen this docket to allow staff to further discuss this issue with the parties.

Also, this needs to be assigned to Jessica Elliott, as lead attorney for legal, with Kimberley Pena assisting.

Thanks!
