DOCKET NO. 010726-WS
Filed: June 1, 2001

MOTION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME
OF THREE BUSINESS DAYS
TO RESPOND TO COMPLAINT

COMES NOW Bayside Utility Services, Inc., and in support of its Motion for Extension of Time states that:

1. Bayside Mobile Home Park, which is located within the service territory of Bayside Utility Services, Inc., has filed a complaint with the Commission regarding extension of water and wastewater services within part of the service territory.
2. After a complaint has been filed, Rule 25-22.032(5)(a), F.A.C., requires that, "The company shall provide its response to the complaint within fifteen (15) working days." The response is due Friday, June 1, 2001.
3. To be able to prepare the response, it has been necessary to acquire certain documents and information relevant to the complaint. Those documents have been acquired, but the undersigned counsel has not been able to complete the review and finalize the response to be filed by the deadline imposed by the rule.
4. Granting the extension of time will not impose any undue hardship or prejudice any party to the proceedings.

WHEREFORE, Bayside Utility Services Inc. requests an extension of three working days, through and including Wednesday, June 6, in which to finalize and file its response to the complaint.
