Ms. Blanca Bayo, Director

RE: Docket No. 010681-TC

Dear Ms. Bayo: .

It is my understanding the above docket was established for nonpayment of the 2000 Regulatory Assessment Fee (RAF) and not providing the Commission with my updated address. First, I will address the nonpayment of the 2000 RAF issue.

As background, I have had this pay telephone certificate since 1993 and have always paid the RAF before the due date of January 30 of each year. In fact, Ms. Isler confirmed that Commission records show that I have never even had to pay the penalty and interest charges for a late payment, much less has your Commission staff had to establish a docket for this rule violation.

I knew I would be leaving at the end of January for my vacation, so I completed the RAF return before I left. The 2000 RAF return, copy enclosed, was mailed to the Commission on January 16, 2001. I thought that I had attached a check for the $50 minimum, however, it turns out, I did not. It was certainly my intention to attach the check and I apologize for this. It was simply an oversight. Attached is my check in the amount of $65.00 to cover the RAF, plus penalty and interest charges.

Ms. Isler advised that a late notice was mailed in February. Unfortunately, I did not receive the late notice. If I had, I would have mailed a check immediately.

The second issue concerns returned mail. I have not moved and my address has not changed. I neither understand nor can explain why the US Postal Service would return mail that was addressed to me to the Commission. Since I am aware that I am required to notify the commission within 10 days of a change in my address and phone number, and since there has been no change of address or phone number, I do not believe I should be penalized by the Commission for an error on the part of the US Postal Service.

To resolve this docket, I would like to assure the Commission that I have taken steps to prevent late payments of the RAF in the future. In addition, I would like to propose a settlement of $100 to resolve this docket.

I agree to waive any objection to the administrative cancellation of my certificate should I fail to pay in accordance with this settlement offer. If, however, there is a factual dispute as to the manner or level of compliance with any provision in the settlement, I understand Commission staff will bring the matter to the Commission for consideration.

Please advise if the settlement proposal is acceptable.

Sincerely,

Adrian Palma, Vice President
