Re: Docket No. 010627-TC

Dear Mr. Knowles:

On June 1, the Commission received a hand-written note on my May 21 letter to you concerning the above docket. The note stated "Cancel - No longer in payphone or any other business." Since the note was not signed, I am sending this letter to you, the Commission's official liaison for Bay Com.

As information, there are two kinds of cancellations. The first is voluntary, which is normally granted if the company is in good standing with the Commission and does not have a past due balance of the regulatory assessment fee (RAF), including statutory penalty and interest charges. The other is involuntary. If a company is not in good standing and has an outstanding balance of the RAF, the Commission normally cancels the certificate on its own motion for a rule violation. Any balance owed is forwarded to the Comptroller's Office for collection.

The regulatory assessment fee is assessed if a certificate is active for any one day during a calendar year. The RAF is due by January 30 of each year, unless the 30th falls on a weekend, then the fee is due by the next working day, for the previous year. If payment for the RAF is mailed after the due date, then statutory penalty and interest charges are applicable.

According to Commission records, your company has not paid the 2000 RAF, including statutory penalty and interest charges. A breakdown of the amount due is attached. Depending upon when your check is postmarked, interest charges will continue to accrue. The 2000 and 2001 RAF return forms are attached.

The effective date of a voluntary cancellation is the date that the Commission received a company's request for cancellation. In this case, the Commission did not receive your request until June 1, 2001, therefore, the company will owe the 2001 RAF, even if the company is no longer in business or, in fact, never went into business. provides that a company requesting voluntary cancellation must either pay the 2001 RAF or provide a date certain that it will be paid, such as within 30 days after the Commission Order is issued granting the voluntary cancellation.

Therefore, based on the above information, I cannot recommend a voluntary cancellation of your certificate unless the past due balance is paid. Please respond in writing by June 20, 2001, and let me know how you wish to proceed. In the meantime, if you have any questions, just let me know. Re: Docket No. 010627-TC

Dear Mr. Knowles:

A docket has been opened by staff of the Florida Public Service Commission for nonpayment of the 2000 Regulatory Assessment Fee (RAF), which was due January 30, 2001, plus statutory penalty and interest charges. A late notice was mailed February 21, 2000, and to date, Commission records show that payment has not been received.

It is staff's intention to file a recommendation imposing a $500 fine for this rule violation, or cancelling your telecommunications certificate. The Commissioners will vote at an upcoming Agenda Conference whether or not to accept staff's recommendation. A Proposed Agency Action Order will then be issued within 20 days after the vote and your company will have 21 days to protest the Order. It should be noted that just paying the delinquent RAF amount will not prevent your certificate from being cancelled.

If the Order is not protested and the past due amount, including statutory penalty and interest charges, is not paid, then your certificate will be cancelled, and the past due amount will be turned over to the Florida Comptroller's Office for further collection attempts. Therefore, it is important that you contact staff as soon as possible, but no later than June 5, 2001, to discuss your options.

Options for resolving this docket are enclosed. If you have any questions, please contact me at (850) 413-6502-voice, (850) 413-6503-fax, at the address below, or via internet e-mail at pisler@psc.state.fl.us.
