Jive Talk, Inc.

Dear Mr. Glick:

On May 30, 2001, the Commission received your letter dated May 23 requesting cancellation of your Pay Telephone Certificate No. 5090. As information, there are two kinds of cancellations. The first is voluntary, which is normally granted if the company is in good standing with the Commission and does not have a past due balance of the regulatory assessment fee (RAF), including statutory penalty and interest charges. The other is involuntary. If a company is not in good standing and has an outstanding balance of the RAF, the Commission normally cancels the certificate on its own motion for a rule violation. Any balance owed is forwarded to the Comptroller's Office for collection.

The regulatory assessment fee is assessed if a certificate is active for any one day during a calendar year. The RAF is due by January 30 of each year, unless the 30th falls on a weekend, then the fee is due by the next working day, for the previous year. If payment for the RAF is mailed after the due date, then statutory penalty and interest charges are applicable.

According to Commission records, your company has a small outstanding balance of the penalty and interest charges. A breakdown of the charges is attached.

The effective date of a voluntary cancellation is the date that the Commission received a company's request for cancellation. In this case, the Commission did not receive your request until May 30, 2001, therefore, the company will owe the 2001 RAF, even if the company is no longer in business or, in fact, never went into business. Rule 25-24.514, Florida Administrative Code, provides that a company requesting voluntary cancellation must either pay the 2001 RAF or provide a date certain that it will be paid, such as within 30 days after the Commission Order is issued granting the voluntary cancellation. The 2001 RAF return form is attached.

Therefore, based on the above information, I cannot recommend a voluntary cancellation of your certificate unless the past due balance is paid. Please respond in writing by June 5, 2001, and let me know how you wish to proceed. In the meantime, if you have any questions, just let me

No, don't open a docket yet because Jive Talk has a small P&I balance, so send to me and I'll write them. I don't know about the Lone Star company buying their payphones. We do not have a certificated payphone company with the name Lone Star Telcom.
