RE: Docket No. 960835-EI, Gulf Power Company and The Southern Company, Intent to Request Confidential Classification

Gulf Power Company and its parent company, The Southern Company, have requested confidential classification for Form UC-3, which is filed as required with the Securities and Exchange Commission. The form was filed on July 27, 2001. In addition, the company filed Certificates of Notification, File Nos. 70-9701 and 70-9727. Section 366.093 (3)(e), Florida Statutes, considers proprietary confidential business information to be information relating to competitive interests where the disclosure of the information would impair the competitive business of the provider of the information. Staff has reviewed the documents listed below, which may be returned to the company.
