RE: Commco Technology, L.L.C. d/b/a Broadstream Communications Corporation

We've had this one going back to December 2000 and have never marked any company because the FEID # does not match. However, I just called the Commission's liaison, Laurie Arthur, and she confirmed that TJ236 and TX294 (BroadStream Corporation) is the same company as Commco Technology, L.L.C. d/b/a Broadstream Communications Corporation.

Therefore, please mark TJ236 and TX294 as having filed for bankruptcy.
Thanks!

Forwarding copy of the following bankruptcy notice that I received for your information, review and verification:

1. Commco Technology, L.L.C. d/b/a Broadstream Communications Corporation

Could not find any company listed in MCD under this name.

Please advise if this is correct and if you find any other company (ies) that should be marked accordingly.

Thanks for your help.

MOTION FOR ORDER PURSUANT TO 11 U.S.C. § 554
AUTHORIZING THE DEBTOR TO ABANDON CERTAIN PERSONAL PROPERTY BELONGING TO THE ESTATE

Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §554 and Rule 6007 of Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure, the debtor, Commco Technology L.L.C. d/b/a BroadStream Communications Corporation (the "Debtor" and/or "Commco") respectfully seeks from this Court an order authorizing it to abandon certain personal property belonging to the estate. In support of this motion, the Debtor represents the following:

1. On December 18, 2000 (the "Petition Date"), Commco filed with this Court a voluntary petition for relief under Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code.

2. Commco is continuing to operate its business and manage its property as a Debtor-in-Possession pursuant to §§1107 and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code.

FPSC-RECORDS/REPORTING

3 A committee of unsecured creditors was appointed by the office of the United States Trustee on February 1, 2001, which appointment was thereafter amended on February 9, 2001.

4. No examiner has been appointed or designated herein.

5 Immediately prior to the commencement of this Chapter 11 case, Commco closed two (2) out-of-state offices and consolidated all business and financial operations from its third and remaining office at Two Stamford Plaza, 281 Tresser Boulevard in Stamford, Connecticut, also the Debtor's principal place of business. In connection with the (2) office closings and subsequent business consolidations, all staff members were laid off. The office supplies (scotch tape, paper clips, staples, post-it notes) purchased for use by the Debtor's former employees are located at the Debtor's principal place of business in Stamford, Connecticut and have remained there since the commencement of this case.

6. On June 12, 2001, an emergency hearing was held before this Court on the Debtor's motion to employ Bid4Assets, Inc. to liquidate at auction certain personal property belonging to the Debtor which property is also housed at Two Stamford Plaza, 281 Tresser Boulevard in Stamford, Connecticut, the Debtor's principal place of business. The auction is expected to occur before the end of June, 2001.

7. Prior to the auction, however, the Debtor would like to assemble and donate the aforementioned office supplies that have de minimis value and not marketability to a worthy cause. Specifically, the Debtor would like to donate these items to the 399th Combat Support Hospital in Kosovo which, while working along with the Task Force Medical Falcon IV, is collecting any and all supplies for the schools and orphanages that have been devastated by the conflict in Kosovo. Although the office supplies are of no consequential value or benefit to the estate, they will certainly be of consequential value to the school children and orphans of Kosovo. Attached hereto as Exhibit A is a list of the office supplies.

WHEREFORE, Commco respectfully requests that this Court enter an order authorizing the Debtor to abandon the personal property (office supplies) set forth in Exhibit A attached hereto so that the Debtor can donate those items to the 399th Combat Support Hospital in Kosovo.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR PROOF OF CLAIM FORM

The instructions and definitions below are general explanations of the law. In particular types of cases or circumstances, such as bankruptcy cases that are not filed voluntarily by a debtor, there may be exceptions to these general rules.

DEFINITIONS

Debtor	Secured Claim	Unsecured Claim
The person, corporation, or other entity that has filed a bankruptcy case is called the debtor.	A claim is a secured claim to the extent that the creditor has a lien on property of the debtor (collateral) that gives the creditor the right to be paid from that property before creditors who do not have liens on the property.	If a claim is not a secured claim it is an unsecured claim. A claim may be partly secured and partly unsecured if the property on which a creditor has a lien is not worth enough to pay the creditor in full.
Creditor	Examples of liens are a mortgage on real estate and a security interest in a car, truck, boat, television set, or other item of property. A lien may have been obtained through a court proceeding before the bankruptcy case began; in some states a court judgment is a lien. In addition, to the extent a creditor also owes money to the debtor (has a right of setoff), the creditor's claim may be a secured claim. (See also Unsecured Claim .)	Unsecured Priority Claim Certain types of unsecured claims are given priority, so they are to be paid in bankruptcy cases before most other unsecured claims (if there is sufficient money or property available to pay these claims). The most common types of priority claims are listed on the proof of claim form. Unsecured claims that are not specifically given priority status by the bankruptcy laws are classified as Unsecured Nonpriority Claims .
Proof of Claim
A creditor is any person, corporation, or other entity to whom the debtor owed a debt on the date that the bankruptcy case was filed.
A form telling the bankruptcy court how much the debtor owed a creditor at the time the bankruptcy case was filed (the amount of the creditor's claim). This form must be filed with the clerk of the bankruptcy court where the bankruptcy case was filed.

Items to be completed in Proof of Claim form (if not already filled in)

Court, Name of Debtor, and Case Number:

Fill in the name of the federal judicial district where the bankruptcy case was filed (for example, Central District of California), the name of the debtor in the bankruptcy case, and the bankruptcy case number. If you received a notice of the case from the court, all of this information is near the top of the notice.

Information about Creditor:

Complete the section giving the name, address, and telephone number of the creditor to whom the debtor owes money or property, and the debtor's account number, if any. If anyone else has already filed a proof of claim relating to this debt, if you never received notices from the bankruptcy court about this case, if your address differs from that to which the court sent notice, or if this proof of claim replaces or changes a proof of claim that was already filed, check the appropriate box on the form.

1. Basis for Claim:

Check the type of debt for which the proof of claim is being filed. If the type of debt is not listed, check "Other" and briefly describe the type of debt. If you were an employee of the debtor, fill in your social security number and the dates of work for which you were not paid.

2. Date Debt Incurred:

Fill in the date when the debt first was owed by the debtor.

3. Court Judgments:

If you have a court judgment for this debt, state the date the court entered the judgment.

4. Total Amount of Claim at Time Case Filed:

Fill in the total amount of the entire claim. If interest or other charges in addition to the principal amount of the claim are included, check the appropriate place on the form and attach an itemization of the interest and charges.

5. Secured Claim:

Check the appropriate place if the claim is a secured claim. You must state the type and value of property that is collateral for the claim, attach copies of the documentation of your lien, and state the amount past due on the claim as of the date the bankruptcy case was filed. A claim may be partly secured and partly unsecured. (See DEFINITIONS, above).

6. Unsecured Priority Claim:

Check the appropriate place if you have an unsecured priority claim, and state the amount entitled to priority. (See DEFINITIONS, above). A claim may be partly priority and partly nonpriority if, for example, the claim is for more than the amount given priority by the law. Check the appropriate place to specify the type of priority claim.

7. Credits:

By signing this proof of claim, you are stating under oath that in calculating the amount of your claim you have given the debtor credit for all payments received from the debtor.

8. Supporting Documents:

You must attach to this proof of claim form copies of documents that show the debtor owes the debt claimed or, if the documents are too lengthy, a summary of those documents. If documents are not available, you must attach an explanation of why they are not available.
