Docket No. 000028-TL

MOTION TO CONTINUE

Bell South

Vs.

Anthony Parks

Respondent moves for a continuance of the matter that is set for
This coming Monday for the following reasons:

ONE

This past weekend respondent received a notice of a hearing for Petitioner motion.

Respondent was out of town the week prior, although the notice did
Not arrive until the middle of last week. This gave petitioner less than ten days
To make arrangements.

TWO

Apparently in December of 2001 petitioner requested a continuance,
And respondent did not object, although petitioner had made necessary
Arrangements at that time, so respondent is requesting the same treatment.

THREE

Respondent did not receive the last order which from what is being Verbally told by legal counsel, the February date was mentioned.

FOUR

If petitioner was local this would not be an issue, however petitioner Has another case that require his appearance in Broward County this coming Monday. Also since Tallahassee is over five hundred miles, more reasonable time Is needed for this type of travel, since this had to be by air travel.

These are appeal-able issues that should be addressed on this level, and Petitioner request that this matter be reset with more reasonable notice in The future.
